

‘Destination Guyana’ is a paradise for nature lovers, adventure seekers, and the Eco-tourist alike. We boast an irresistible combination of fascinating and breathtaking natural beauty; pristine Amazonian rainforests; immense waterfalls; amazing wildlife; blended with a vibrant indigenous culture, rich heritage and the most hospitable and friendly people in the world.

2018 holds a lot of optimism for our tourism sector as we seek to make ‘Guyana – South America Undiscovered’, the destination of choice. If you are looking for a one of a kind destination full of adventure, hospitality and unique experiences, then ‘Guyana – South America Undiscovered’ is the place to come!!! A truly memorable, unforgettable and out-of-the-ordinary experience awaits you.

Come Discover! Sir Walter

Raleigh came to this famous land in search of the fabled "City of Gold"

Guyana's tepui inspired Conan Doyle's "The Lost World"

Read what others are saying about this destination

- Into the Wild in Lush Guyana - By TARA MULHOLLAND (How did I end up in this remote spot, chasing anteaters?) ... read more

- Professional Birdwatchers Land in Guyana Once Again - Adventure Travel Trade Association

The birding-focused FAM trip includes special guest leader, Tim Appleton, originator and co-founder of British Birdwatching Fair. "You can stop randomly and pick up a half-dozen new [bird] species without even trying." ... read more

- Avatar on Earth - Conde Nast Traveler

THE PIONEER Tiny Guyana, whose forest is one of the few considered to be nearly intact, has plans for development that won't ruin its—and our—greatest natural resource. ... read more

- Guyana: There at the Beginning (an ABA article written by Rick Wright)

"Not only does the country offer a tremendous range of habitats - from coastal lagoons to savanna, foothills to rainforest - but historical accident has made Guyana the only English-speaking land in South America" ... read more